THE LATE CAPT. BLAZER.

We notice that Yellow Jack numbers among his victims Capt. Richard Blazer, and our exchanges in noting his death, add that he "met and vanquished" Mosby's guerrillas on one occasion. The said Capt. Blazer did meet Mosby's men at one time, and somebody was most decidedly vanquished, but it happened to be Blazer. The following graphic account of the "vanquishing" we take from Maj. John Scott's "Partisan Life with Mosby." After describing the encounter with and rout of Blazer's command at Myerstown, he continues: "But how fared it with Capt. Blazer?—Even after the fruitless effort at Myerstown he had attempted to restore the fight, but his efforts served only to delay his own retreat and render useless the fleetness of his horse. He was singled out by four men, justly ranked among the best soldiers in Mosby's command—Sam Alexander, Syd Ferguson, Cab. Maddux and the terrible Powell. But the superior force of Ferguson's mare, Fashion, one of the fleetest and hardest animals in the battalion, enabled her rider to pass in succession all his competitors in that headlong pursuit, and place himself by the side of Blazer. Then rising in his stirrups he struck Captain Blazer a blow with his pistol, which brought him to the ground. There was one man who proposed to finish the work which Ferguson had begun, but, with the chivalry of a true warrior, he stood up in defense of his capture."

So was Blazer blazed by the now Rev. S. G. Ferguson, pastor of the M. E. Church South, of this town.

Capt. Scott, in the work with which we take the above, pays a high tribute to Capt. Blazer as a brave and efficient officer, and we only publish this article to correct the misstatements quoted above.

THE PROTECTIVE TARIFF.

The protective tariff that is kept in operation in this country for the benefit of a few manufacturers, says the Alexandria Gazette, has helped in no small degree to produce the prevailing hard times, and if continued must of necessity make them harder by either preventing an increase in or seriously diminishing foreign orders for American goods, and consequently either preventing an increase in or seriously diminishing the labor employed to supply these orders. Canada already in consequence of this tariff has determined to establish a similar one, which will of course reduce to a minimum the quantity of goods exported from the United States to that country, and the European governments, for the same reasons, are contemplating the imposition of heavy duties on American products. This is not only natural but sensible, and the wonder is that retaliatory tariffs have not been imposed before. When they shall have become general, as must be the case if the American tariff be allowed to remain in force, the balance in trade, now permitted by their non-existence to be in favor of this country, will be likely to change sides, and the depression in business on this side of the Atlantic be greater than ever.—Free trade, not only in ships, but in everything else, is what this country wants to stimulate its industries, for American goods are the best and the cheapest in the world, are sought for everywhere, and could be obtained wherever sought if it were not that the tariff laid on foreign goods in this country prevents the importation of such goods, and consequently deprives foreign merchants of that means of paying for what they would otherwise buy here.

A LITERARY SOCIETY.

The question, just at this season, occurs to us, cannot our Literary Society be revived, or some measure be put on foot by which our people may be afforded a series of lectures or literary entertainments during the coming winter? The fall term of our Circuit Court is now over, and our legal friends are through with their heavy work until spring, and will, we doubt not, be willing to lend their aid towards accomplishing this object. The nights are getting long, and a few of them might be spent pleasantly and profitably in the enjoyment of a good lecture or debate. Who will move in the matter?

The enemies of Gen. Joseph E. Johnston, who is a candidate for Congress in the Richmond (Va.) district, having published a circular designed to prejudice the Irish voters against him, charging him with having a couple of Irish soldiers shot for a trivial offense during the early days of the late war, Gen. Johnston has published a card pronouncing the circular a slander. He says its only foundation is in the fact that two soldiers of Wheat's Louisiana battalion were convicted and sentenced to death for the highest military crime—mutiny—by a general court-martial. The act was the attacking an officer and guards with deadly weapons to release prisoners under their charge. The sentence of death was that prescribed for this crime not only by Confederate law, but by the laws of the European nations. He had no power to pardon such criminals, and the proceedings being regular, there was no pretext for delay. Gen. Johnston says he has no reason to think the men executed were Irishmen, and that long acquaintance with the Irish as soldiers impressed him with the belief that they are inferior to none in fidelity and courage.

Charles Davies, Esq., of Harper's Ferry, has accepted a pressing invitation to deliver before the students of the West Virginia University, on the 5th of December, his interesting lecture on "Richard Brinsley Sheridan; the Wit, the Dramatist, and the Orator." The pleasure it afforded one of the largest audiences ever gathered in Washington Hall, in this place, to listen to this fine production of Mr. Davies, furnishes a certain guarantee that a rich treat is in store for those who will be gathered at the University on the 5th proximo.

Elections take place in thirty States to-day, in all of which members of Congress are to be elected—two hundred and twenty-four members of the House of Representatives. The States are as follows: Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont, Virginia and Wisconsin. The Republicans are making superhuman efforts to carry Pennsylvania. Already thirteen thousand fraudulent names have been stricken off the registry list in Philadelphia, and money is being used by thousands to buy up votes. If the Democracy carry Pennsylvania it will be a triumph over fraud, corruption money, and every manner of Republican appliances.

THE EFFECT OF USURY.

"Money is a legal representative, and serves to fix an income, but not to produce wealth. Loan it twenty or thirty times and interest is high, and every time it is lent it makes an income for the lender for a longer or shorter period, which improves the borrower because they must sell their products to pay the interest. The principal borrowed must soon be returned to the lender in interest, and the interest is related to the people. These high rates of interest serve to make the people paying them, tributary to a few money holders among themselves and in other States. For a few years previous to 1851, the State of Wisconsin made all rates of interest legal; that is, the rate of interest was a matter of agreement between the borrower and the lender. The consequence was, that the rate of interest varied from 12 to 100 per cent, per annum. We are credibly informed that the highest rate was, in many instances, exacted and good landed society obtained for its payment. Let us see what effect certain rates of interest on money borrowed abroad must have on the circulating medium of the State. If the rate of interest were at one per cent, and T., living in New York, should lend $10,000 in Wisconsin at that rate, the borrower, at the end of the year, must send T. $1000. The people of Wisconsin would have $9,000 of the money borrowed remaining among them as a circulating medium. But, if T. lend his money at twelve per cent, the borrower must send T. at the close of the year, $1,200, and but $8,800 would be left circulating in Wisconsin. If he lend at fifty per cent, the borrower must send T. $5,000 to pay the interest, so that one half of the borrowed money is returned to T. in New York, and only $5,000 is left in Wisconsin. But if T. lend the $10,000 at a hundred per cent, per annum, the borrower must send T. at the end of the year, $10,000, and not one dollar of it is left in Wisconsin. Still the borrower would be indebted to T. for the principal of $10,000, and, in another year, would owe T. $10,000 more in interest. It would not take a very large amount of money lent at this and approximate rates by the citizens of New York to those of Wisconsin, to throw the balance of trade against Wisconsin and in favor of New York. In such a case, it would be no strange that money should be scarce in Wisconsin while it was plentiful in New York?

"In the United States, if interest were reduced to one, or to one and one-tenth per cent, useful productions would probably increase from twenty-five to fifty per cent.—The wealth, instead of being accumulated in a few hands, could be distributed among its producers; a large proportion of the labor employed, in building up cities, would be expended in cultivating and beautifying the country. Internal improvements would be made to an extent, and in a perfection, unexampled in the history of nations. The arts, manufactures, and the arts would flourish in every part of the country. Those who are now non-producers would naturally become producers. The production would be owned by those who performed the labor, because the Standard of distribution (which is money) would nearly conform to the natural rights of man."—Kellog page 183 to 185.

Will not the producing classes of the people of the United States, under such facts and reasonings as the above, open their eyes and see the magnitude of their "Sovereign money power"? And, that it should never be transferred and farmed out to the corporations, and the "corner kept" in it for the corporations and the "uses" of usurers, brokers, and shavers! No! this "Sovereign money power"—the power of all—the power of the nation—should be instituted, controlled and managed by the nation alone, and for the equal benefit of all, as was designed by our common, National Constitution; under that constitution, Congress should do what it is enjoined to do—but has never done—to wit: "fix the value" of money for the use of all in exchanges, but for the investments, or usury, or merchandise of none!

Summit Point, Oct. 17th, 1878.

WINCHESTER AND VICINITY.—From the News we clip the following:

Ground for the foundation of the monument to the Unknown Dead has been broken at Stonewall Cemetery.

The Union Bank building is gradually nearing completion. It will be a stylish house when finished.

Mrs. Col. J. S. Hammond nee Belle Boyd will give an entertainment in the Court House Hall, next Thursday night, November 7th.

Mr. Isaac H. Faulkner, Sr., has purchased for $4,000 the Sidwell property on Market street. This property consists of the brick house on Market street lately occupied by Mrs. Hugh Sidwell, with the vacant lot lying south of it, and also a brick house on Billings' alley.

From the Times:

Mr. Elliott retires from the management of the Taylor Hotel to-morrow; he goes to Carlisle, Pa., his former home. Mr. John Robbins succeeds him in the management of the hotel.

The war-cloud in Europe is ominous of a rupture yet between Russia, Turkey, England and other powers. The Berlin treaty, it is claimed, is not being strictly observed.

Our State Legislature, which convenes on the 8th of January next, will stand as follows: Senate—Democrats 20; Republicans 3; Greenbackers 1. House—Democrats 49; Republicans 3; Greenbackers 10.

President Hayes has issued his proclamation setting apart November 28th as a day of thanksgiving.

Mr. Burton, the Jeweller of Harper's Ferry, has a singular sort of mechanical contrivance in his store window, from which hangs half a dozen watches—some of them old fashioned family watches, as big and stout as dutchmen filled with lager beer—some as small almost as ten cent pieces—like little babies following their fat papas, and this contrivance keeps continually going round at the same solemn, blind horse rate—no variation, no check, no change of time. Citizens are beginning to complain of this; they say that it is having a bad effect on the brain of people who are obliged to look into the window. We certainly think that Mr. Burton, if he cannot give some variety to the movements of this machine of his, ought to remove it. What would Mr. Burton think and say, and do, if, after paying his five cents for a look at a short paying watch, instead of ever changing views, the same old Mont Venuis, or Gen. Scott on his white charger, was revolving round? Why! He'd smash the show, and knock down the dirty-faced Italian that managed it.

We are told that history repeats itself: that the civilization of the 19th century recalls that of Greece, that of Greece recalls that of Egypt, and so on. But then it will be remembered, that one man has never been called on to observe and endure the nuisance of such a recurrence. It is not hard to imagine that if some gentleman who used to dance quadrilles with Pharaoh's daughter, and smoke cigars with her father, had lived on these days these epochs he would—much as we love life—many a time and oft, wish himself dead. Under all these circumstances, we really think that if Mr. Burton cannot give some variety to the movements of this machine of his that we have described, he ought incontinently to remove it.

PEN, INK AND SCISSORS.

—Cardinal Cullen, Archbishop of Dublin, is dead.

—A sure mark of a successful storekeeper is keeping his windows clean and his advertisement in the newspapers.—Ex.

—The withdrawal of General Echols from the canvass for Congress in the Augusta (Va.) district has been announced.

—Dr. Alfred Leyburn, of Lexington, died last Wednesday at Abingdon, where he went as a delegate to the Synod that was held there recently.

Some adroit burglars entered the Manhattan Bank of New York, early Monday morning, and, working for several hours, gave them the combination to the safe, and robbed it of two millions five hundred thousand dollars in U. S. bonds and other valuables.

—The closing days of the epidemic fever in the South are marked by revived business in the afflicted cities and a general sense of relief throughout the country. Quarantine restrictions have been removed at various points, and in a short time the record of the fever will have passed into history.

—A Parkersburg (West Virginia) dispatch says that along the line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for forty miles east of that city diphtheria is raging to a greater extent than ever was known in that region. Twelve children have died in the last four days, and more than half the families along the road have at least one case, and in some of them all the children are down with it.—Physicians from Parkersburg are sent for nearly every day.

—It is rather difficult for a railroad conductor to please all, but Capt. Newport does this. Every one who travels the Valley Branch of the B. & O. R. R., soon learns to know "the big, smooth faced captain." He is agreeable, kind, accommodating, and does more than his duty to his passengers. We hope to see the Capt. go up higher. He is every inch a thorough business gentleman, and deserves nothing but praise and the best of positions.—New Market Shen. Valley.

—Col. Richard Realf, formerly one of the editors of the Pittsburg (Pa.) Commercial, committed suicide in Oakland, Cal., Tuesday, by taking a dose of morphine. Realf was an Englishman by birth, but came to this country when still very young, and drifted into the movements of John Brown previous to the raid at Harper's Ferry. He was private secretary of John Brown, and was to have had a place in Brown's projected cabinet.

—The Confederate Monument, which was unveiled on Thursday at Augusta, Ga., is one of the most imposing works of art of that kind in the South. The monument is of marble and was made in Ferrara, Italy.—It is 71 feet high, exclusive of the foundation, and 21 feet square at the base. The base is of Stone Mountain granite. The statue of a confederate soldier stands on the top of the monument, and statues of General R. E. Lee, General Stonewall Jackson, General Thomas R. R. Cobb and General W. H. Walker are placed on the pedestals about 20 feet above the base. The funds for the work were raised by the Ladies' Memorial Association of Georgia.
